

ARISEN

The sky was dark and grey on a place called Calvary
(The day of the cross for our Lord)
Truth for those who believe today

Believe and Pray

He is arisen !

He is arisen !

Praise to The Lord !

Now it's an amazing day, here today

Living in the light of The Lord

Eternity, alive forever

Living in the light of The Lord

He is arisen !

He is arisen !

He is alive today !

And we will die no more

No more death to sin

The promise has been made

It's an amazing day

God is here today

It's so amazing

It's an amazing day !

Planet Earth / our place of birth

Together we are here and play

And we're all going home some day

Forever all together All Praise

He is arisen !

He is arisen !

And we will die no more

No more death to sin

The promise has been made

It's an amazing day !
